WOUNDED, BUT HAPPY TO HAVE GIVEN ALL FOR FRANCE

The scene here pictured was witnessed in Amberia, a small town at the base of the Jura, on the road from Lyons to Geneva. A pathetic procession was this, of the lame and the halt French soldiers who had been wounded in action and sent back from the firing line to recuperate. Without, regardless of their wounds, many of which will never heal, these French fighters are cheerful and happy to have given what they could to their "dear France."

ed for, which will increase earnings.
With the present market price around $27 a share, Miami, at the present dividend rate, gives a return of 10 per cent. on the investment, and a good prospect of a higher return before the year closes.

The Miami Copper company has an authorized capital of 800,000 shares of a par value of $5 each, of which 747, 112 shares are issued, equal to $3,735, 560. In addition there are still outstanding $19,000 of 10-year first mortgage 4 per cent. convertible bonds.

SCARCITY OF ZINC CAUSES BRITISH WORRY

In England and legislation by the English government will probably be also necessary. The main problem, however, is that of obtaining adequate smelting capacity. Large increases in the United States are expected to relieve the situation partially within a short time. It is said that any new smelting works which may be built in England will be constructed in conjunction with Belgian and French interests.

RAILROAD SYSTEMS IN PALESTINE IMPROVED

Canal, and we are trying by all means to open up this conquered territory.
We have dug numerous wells there, which will supply our troops with water, and we have taken all steps necessary to enable our troops to stay there and also to go forward. This means also that we have opened up this wilderness for settlement by a fixed population. As the English, in disregard of all existing treaties that guarantee the neutrality of the Suez Canal, have built fortifications to the east of it and have thus drawn the canal into the sphere of hostilities, we were no longer able to regard the canal as neutral territory. We therefore put mines at various places in it and these have already caused the sinking of one ship."

Sanitary conditions, said Djemal, were satisfactory, in spite of the modification of troops. The fight against epidemic diseases had been facilitated he said, by the International Health Office established at Jerusalem some years ago by Nathan Straus of New York and a number of German philanthropists.
